Land Consolidation in States

275. SHRI RAJ NATH SINGH "SURYA": Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that land consolidation has not been implemented by all the States;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to provide special assistance in this regard; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI A. RAJA): (a) and (b) In land consolidation, substantial progress has been made in the States of Punjab,. Haryana and Uttar Pradesh. Progress has also been substantial in the States of Maharahstra and Madhya Pradesh, though total coverage has not yet been contemplated. Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat and Karnataka are the States where some work has been done, while experimental work has been done in Andhra Pradesh, Bihar and Jammu & Kashmir. Not much work has been done in Assam, Orissa and West Bengal, though there are enabling legislations. A National Committee on Consolidation of Holdings has been constituted by Government of India for formulating a new Centrally sponsored Scheme on Consolidation of Holdings for Assisting the States.

(c) A Statement is enclosed.
